

Creative Activities for Children Programme (CAC-Prog)

Lanka Children's and Youth Theatre Foundation (LCYTF):

In 1981 Somalatha Subasinghe founded the Lanka Children's and Youth Theatre Foundation (LCYTF) and Play House-Kotte, the theatre production and training arm of LCYTF, to promote theatre production and performances specifically for children and youth, training of actors, and research on theatre studies. Since 1981 the organisation has produced a repertoire of mainly musical theatre for children and youth and award winning mainstream art theatre productions and performed them in the island as well as abroad. In January 2007, this institution was incorporated in the parliament under the Act No. 3 of 2007. At present LCYTF is the top most institution for children and youth theatre productions in Sri Lanka.

Introduction:

The prime objective of the programme is to develop child's mental and physical aspects and to enhance artistic taste, cheerfulness and playful sense of the child through aesthetic experiences.
